

Josephine Jarcecz, 6, 1446 W. Huron st., struck by unknown motorcyclist June 8, died yesterday after praying for man that struck her and didn't have courage enough to stop.

George W. Smith, 30, and wife, Anna, 28, severely bruised when their motorcycle was struck by auto and driven by M. R. Marks, diamond broker, 30 E. Adams st., at Buffalo ave. and 88th st.

Members of Oak Park Congregational church cheered name of Clarence S. Funk when pastor mentioned him yesterday.

250 children from tenement districts will be guests of county at Oak Forest infirmary today. Peter Bartzen in charge of trip.

Frederick H. and J. Francis Chetlain, 17, twin sons of former Judge Chetlain, 7414 Sheridan road, attacked and beaten by 8 men near Calvary cemetery. Believed to have been golf caddies.

Corner stone of new St. Andrews' Roman Catholic church, N. Paulina and Addison sts., laid yesterday. Bishop McGavick officiated.

Walter J. Seymour, 24, member U. S. naval training station, North Chicago, and residing at 11920 S. Michigan ave., drowned at entrance of Calumet river. Fell overboard from steam launch.

Children who insisted on wandering away to parks yesterday and getting lost, caused police force all sorts of worry.

Mrs. Grace Springer, 1841 S. Wabash ave. Suicide. Gas. Deserted by husband.

H. M. Kennedy, 509 W. 61st st., held up and robbed by 2 men at 63rd st. and Indiana ave. Gold watch and 75 cents.

Mayor Harrison predicts that Bryan and Kern will again be the Democratic party ticket.

Federal Judge Carpenter issued writ authorizing seizure of diamond necklace that Jack Johnson, negro fighter, is alleged to have smuggled into country.

300 chiropodists convened at Hotel LaSalle today for the purpose of adding more dignity to their profession. They are going to try and pass order demanding that every one who enters business of toe butchery be a college graduate.

Harley Sturvant, 175 High st., and Mrs. Emma Conroy, same address, arrested in front of St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, W. Pol and S. Clark sts, as they were about to abandon newly born babe.

American Vigilance Ass'n to force prosecution of professional escorts who are paid to accompany questionable women to saloons, so they can evade law against women entering drinking alone.

Mad dog caused excitement in vicinity of 107th st. and So. Michigan ave. Shot by policeman.

Heat believed responsible for death of George Patter, carpenter, 1522 N. Central Park av., whose body was found at Archer av. and V. 22nd st.

E. F. Wahlberg, Cincinnati, reported he had been robbed of $50 by 2 polite young pickpockets